NOBLE IN LIFE, BEAUTIFUL IN DEATH

The Storm of Disease Subsides, a Calm of Perfect Rest Follows, and the Spirit of Mrs. D. H. Milton Mingles With the Innumerable Throng Around the Great White Throne.

On last Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the birthday of the noble Washington, (the father of our country) the spirit of the beloved Mrs. D. H. Milton took its flight to the bosom of the Father of us all.

The leave-taking of husband, children and loved ones came after many weary months of suffering, bravely born by a Christian fortitude worthy of emulation.

A few minutes before the end, sweet rest enveloped the frail body and a halo of Heavenly brightness seemed to light up the face and she slept as peaceful and serene as an infant upon its mother's breast. Mrs. Milton, no doubt, had seen the arrival of the angelic couriers which were soon to convey her spirit beyond the storm clouds of life, into the harbor of refuge and peace—safely into the arms of Jesus, where there is no suffering nor sorrowing, but where there is an eternity of happiness and where she is today awaiting the arrival of her beloved companion, who was so kind and gentle here on earth, and whom she is now beckoning to join her in the spirit land.

Mrs. Milton was an exceptional good woman, one who lived to bless the world—she was a boon of Providence to mankind, her fame is eternity, and her influences for good unlimited. If the Heavens thundered and the earth rocked, yet, when the storm passed, how pure was the climate of her life that it cleared, how bright in the brow of the firmament was the planet it revealed to us. The lightnings of Heaven were to her a master stroke of the Divine and the temptations of earth could not corrupt or make afraid.

We wish we could adequately tell of the worth of such a good woman to humanity, and in what admiration we held her. For nearly twenty-seven years we have known Mrs. Milton, from the age of ten, when we used to play with, and be treated like her children, and called "her boy" until this day when we are called to chronicle her death. We feel an unusual sadness as these lines are penned, our eyes are dimmed by the sad thought that such a friend, such a noble woman is no more on earth, and that the heart of that grand old man, our life long friend, and her devoted companion, is broken—a companionship lasting over 42 years of beautiful union. Oh, the sadness of it all! How tenderly he administered to her every want and how devoted and affectionate until the cold earth enshrouded her form. A few hours before she died, her face beaming with brightness, as was her trait, notwithstanding her intense suffering, she gave recognition of this beautiful devotion and tried to impart a last farewell, then closed her eyes in the sweet peace of mind that "all is well," and the relatives and loved ones left behind can rest in the sweet assurance that Heaven is so much dearer and nearer to them now. The blessed assurance will stand guard with them during the wild storms or under the quiet stars, for their loved one sleeps beneath the shadows of the clouds, careless of the sunshine or storm, in the windowless palace of rest.

Our deepest sorrow goes out to the bereaved husband, the three children, relatives and friends.

Mrs. D. H. Milton was before marriage Miss Sophronia Augusta Hearne, and was born near Albemarle, in Stanley County, N. C., October 8th, 1847, and was therefore in her 66th year. She was married to Col. D. H. Milton, November 2nd, 1870, who with three children survive, Messrs. R. H. and S. G. Milton, of Greensboro, and Mrs. W. M. Tucker, of this city. For nearly two years she had been seriously ill with cancer of the stomach, and for the past several months her life hung in the balance, and nothing but a strong will power kept her alive this long.

The funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the Washington Street M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. J. H. Barnhardt, assisted by Rev. W. C. Tyree of the First Baptist Church, and attended by a great throng of people.

All the secret orders of which Mr. Milton was a member were represented—the Red Men, Elks, Masons, Junior Order, Pythians, Patriotic Sons of America.

The active pall bearers were: M. J. Freeman, M. J. Wrenn, Geo. A. Matton, J. E. Kirkman, J. A. Clinard and J. L. Sechrist.

The honorary pall bearers were: W. C. Jones, E. D. Steele, W. D. Simmons, A. E. Alexander, J. J. Farris and F. N. Tate.

The following members of the Missionary Society served as flower bearers: Mrs. E. D. Steele, Mrs. M. H. Shiplett, Mrs. O. E. Kearns, Mrs. W. D. Simmons, Mrs. A. Sherrod, Mrs. J. E. Kirkman, Mrs. Frank Gurley and Miss Venetia Smith.

The floral designs were very pretty indeed and came from all parts of the state, the largest collection the writer remembers seeing, completely covering the grave and surrounding it.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

At a regular council fire of Chickasaw Tribe No. 32, Improved Order of Red Men, Wednesday night, February 26th, the following resolutions were offered:

Whereas, the Great Spirit in his unerring decree has caused the angel of death to visit the home of our beloved Sachem Bro. D. H. Milton and take unto himself the brightest jewel in the home, his dear wife; therefore be it resolved;

First—That our hearts go out to our sorrow-stricken brother and we assure him of our heartfelt sympathy in his sad hour of affliction.

Second—That we point our bereaved brother heavenward where his beloved companion awaits him—that earth to him now is poorer and Heaven richer by the Great Spirit calling one of his home.

Third—That our charter be draped for thirty days in respect to the bereavement of our Sachem and brother, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the city press and The Towahawk (our official organ) with request to publish and also that a copy be sent to Brother Milton and spread upon our records.

Respectfully submitted,

ANOTHER MADERO IS KILLED IN MEXICO

Mexico City, Feb. 25.—Emilio Madero, a brother of the late President, has been shot and killed near Monterrey, according to reliable information received here.

With an escort of 35 men Madero, it is said, was attempting to join the rebels holding Nuevo Laredo, when he was overtaken by troops sent by General Trevino. The reports do not indicate whether Madero was killed in action or was executed.

The shooting took place between Villadama and Bastamente. As the rebel leader in the Laredo district, Geronimo Villareal, is a partisan of General Trevino, the government expects the trouble in that vicinity will be adjusted soon.

Emilio Madero, in conjunction with his brother, Raoul, a few days ago began a counter revolution at San Pedro in the state of Coahuila, in the expectation of uniting the rebels about Saltillo with those in the Laredo district.

RAILROADS MORE REASONABLE

Raleigh, Feb. 26.—The fight of North Carolina for better freight rates to points in this state from the west, compared with Virginia rates, assumed a much more satisfactory condition this afternoon conference of the state commission with the railroads of North Carolina.

The railway officials assumed an entirely different attitude from that of the previous occasion, two weeks ago. At that time they argued how ruinous it would be for them to abolish the discriminatory rates obtaining in this state over Virginia cities. This afternoon Capt. A. P. Thom, chief counsel of the Southern, and spokesman for all the railway companies concerned, read a statement setting forth the attitude of the railroads, which opened up negotiations that may result in saving of thousands of dollars annually to North Carolina shippers.

ATLANTA HAS ANOTHER DAISY GRACE MYSTERY

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 25.—"I don't think I killed my husband. If I did it was 'God's work,'" sobbed Mrs. J. A. Applebaum at the coroner's inquest, late today over the body of J. A. Applebaum, a Chicago traveling man, who was shot and killed this morning in a local hotel. A few minutes later the woman was led to jail at the order of the coroner's jury to be held pending an investigation of the tragedy by the county grand jury.

Mystery surrounding the shooting of Applebaum recalls the strange details in connection with the attack on Eugene H. Grace, for which his wife, Mrs. Daisy Opie Grace, of Philadelphia, recently was tried here and acquitted.

TO THE CITIZENS OF HIGH POINT.

High Point, Feb. 26th, 1913.

For some weeks I have approached from time to time by our citizens, with the question as to whether or not I would be willing to serve another term as mayor of our city. To each person I have tried to be perfectly frank in the matter and have stated that if I should consult my personal interests and desires, I should say no, but that I would consider the matter carefully and announce my intentions at the proper time.

I now feel that the time has arrived when the tax-payers and voters of High Point should know fully just what to expect in this respect, and therefore, in justice to all persons who may feel some interest in the matter, I am making this open statement.

For four years I have served the city as its mayor, and I do most fully appreciate the honor which our people bestowed upon me in electing me to this high office for two consecutive terms. I have never for one moment forgotten my profound obligation to our taxpayers and have at all times kept before me the solemn obligation to perform the duties of the office efficiently, honestly and without the slightest degree of favoritism. To those who care to take the time to review my service to the city covering the past four years, the record will speak probably better than I can here relate it.

I have no desire whatever to serve longer as mayor, in so far as personal gratification and honor may enter, for of these I have received my share, for which I am profoundly grateful, and too, I am satisfied with results accomplished and the record made by the administration, which of course embraces all of the members of the council as well as myself; but when I look forward to the work yet to be done, the beneficial results yet to be attained by the continued close application of business principles to the management of the city's affairs, and when I consider the duty which I feel, and which I am told I owe to my people in completing the work outlined for the next two years, then it seems to me that if I am wanted by the large majority of people, as I am told I am, I should be willing to make the personal sacrifice which must necessarily follow, and apply myself a little longer to the work which means so much to every taxpayer in our city.

I therefore make the announcement, that as I now view the matter, I shall be a candidate for reelection to the office of mayor at the election to be held on May 6th next, and in connection with this announcement, I believe that it is not unbecoming for me to say here, that in my opinion, the High Point people will not for one moment consent to, or tolerate a do-nothing or stand-still policy. It has been too well demonstrated within recent years, that every improvement of a public nature made in the city, has been worth many times more to all of our people than any of us imagined, and certainly there has been no burden placed upon any one by reason of the progress made.

My future policy shall be, as in the past, to figure for the best interests of all the people and not the favored few, in all matters of public improvement, and especially does this apply to those citizens who are just now beginning to realize the benefits which have been so long coming to them; all of which can be worked out without placing a burden upon the city which we are not safely able to assume.

By a continued conservative administration of the city's business, High Point has some great things in store for its people, and along this line I shall at the proper time outline plans for increased fire protection and greatly reduced insurance rates as well as other matters which the people may wish discussed.

I am placing my candidacy in the hands of the people, with the firm belief that their appreciation will be shown and my constant efforts in their behalf, will be rewarded, by a handsome endorsement at the polls.

Respectfully,
FRED N. TATE.
